SECTION II. OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

The objectives of this course are:

1. To acquaint the student with the learning process.
2. To show the student how the principles of learning are applied to instruction and offer practical teaching experiences in applying them.

SECTION III. SPECIFIC CHARACTERISTICS OF THE COURSE

This course included planning and practical teaching work in the techniques of speaking, lecturing, demonstrations, training aids, lesson preparation and presentation, and evaluation of instruction, all based upon the implementation of the principles of learning. Due to the shortness of the course, familiarization only was attempted with the above aspects of teaching.

During this course, the student presented to the class a sample Lecture, Demonstration, and Lesson Plan related to his own technical subject matter area. These presentations were critiqued and rated by his classmates and instructor.
